Citizens for Citizenship

Sami is 6 years old and lives in the Philippines

Which Human Rights should he receive?

Are there any additional rights he should receive?

Challenge – What barriers might he face in terms of rights?

Citizens for Citizenship

Leo has dual heritage

What does this mean?

What might Leo feel are positives and negatives of having a dual heritage?

Challenge – The number of people in the UK with dual heritage is rising, why might this be the case?

Citizens for Citizenship

Tom is an atheist

What does this mean?

What is happening to this specific demographic? (e.g. decreasing/increasing)

Challenge –Why might this be the case?

Citizens for Citizenship

Thalia and Emma have recently got married

What laws were instrumental in making this happen?

Why/how might Thalia and Emma still suffer discrimination?

Challenge –Does same sex marriage mean the UK is succeeding with LGBT rights?

Citizens for Citizenship

Jaz is a senior manager, she recently found out a male colleague is getting paid more for doing the same job as her

What could Jaz do about this?

What is the gender pay gap and how might it impact upon companies/organisations?

Challenge – Why does the gender pay gap still exist?

Citizens for Citizenship

Lucy is a consumer, she recently bought a dress, but has now decided she no longer likes it

What can Lucy do about this?

What rights (if any) does the seller have?

Challenge – What is the Citizens Advice Bureau and how could it help Lucy?

Citizens for Citizenship

Luca has recently retired

How might Luca expect to be looked after by the government now that he has retired?

How does the elderly demographic support society?

How does the elderly demographic put a strain on society?

Challenge – Why is there inequality in terms of income post retirement?

Citizens for Citizenship

Charlotte isn't completely happy with the Human Rights Act

Why might she feel this way?

Which political party shares the same view as her?

Challenge – What do the political party want to replace the Human Rights Act with? (describe it)

Citizens for Citizenship

Karolina and Stephanie work for their local council, they have been tasked to improve community cohesion within their ward

What is community cohesion?

What could Karolina and Stephanie do to improve community cohesion?

Challenge – What might stand in their way?

Citizens for Citizenship

Tinashe is a refugee

What are the reasons for people becoming refugees?

Why are people for and against the UK hosting refugees?

Challenge – What's the difference between an asylum seeker and a refugee?